1 Mayor Pro-tem Howe explained that we have been working on a state veteran's

3 Gallop was chosen because of its large veteran population. The next two are Angel Fire
4 and Carlsbad. We have been in this process with paperwork for a considerable amount
5 of time. We have all the deed transfers from the original owner. We have gone through
6 the county commission with the subdivision issue, then through the Westphall
7 Foundation because they are a nonprofit and then to the village which is where we are 8 now. We are moving this through the Village then on to the state where it goes through
9 two entities the first is General Services that holds all property for the state. The second

11 donate the land to the state. This is what we are approving tonight. Mayor Pro-tem

22 volume, the fire department would like to reinstate the recently cut position to include
23 Emergency Management. For a total cost of $22,703 including the 25% grant from the 24 Department of Homeland Security to the general fund. With the state fire protection
25 fund allowing us to pay the new Chevy truck , $17,000 and the fire excise tax
26 reimbursement of $10,000 we should have the available funds . Mayor Pro-tem Howe
27 made the motion to add a fire fighter /emergency medical technician /emergency

- No water bleeders have been started to date.

Solid Waste

- The department has been busy with additional runs and dumpster pick-ups, especially during the holidays.
- The department moved several truckloads of wood chips to various locations as time and weather permits.

Streets

- The department has been busy with snow removal. Approximately 300 tons of the salt/cinder mix has been used to date.
- Repairs/maintenance on trucks and equipment has taken place during time of no snow removal or as needed.

Frank Salois's time has previously been split 50% Code Enforcement and 50% Streets.

Frank will be moving to 100% Streets. Thus, we have a full time Code Enforcement Officer in Training Position open at this time.

Also, Building Maintenance is being moved to Planning and Zoning/Building Department. The Building Maintenance Position is not a new position, but currently there is no one in that position. Between moving Franks budgeted amount to streets (50%) , and moving the budget for building maintenance from Streets to Planning and Zoning/Building we will have to do a bar adjustment of 32,600 from streets to Planning and Zoning/Building to cover the costs.

Instead of having a person in Code Enforcement 50% of the year, we will now have a person full time.

We will also have a building maintenance person full time as well as a full time custodian. To date Bill has been trying to do both jobs, and has done a great job. It's just time to help him out a little, to where he is not scrambling to try to do both jobs. Bill will be able to focus on the Custodial duties and the new person will be able to focus on building maintenance.

Introduction

The fire department is developing a strategic plan for the '16-'20 fiscal years. Many components were found to be interesting to our personnel. This is a brief of the data we have collected to create this plan. It amounts to a year end report which will eventually evolve into the Strategic Plan.

Important facts are listed below

Call volume has been increasing by 20% to 30% (293,410 and 569) each year since '13.

Volunteers have increased significantly by over 50%.

Started a Childrens one day Camp, teaching fire safety and basic first aid.

Have included members who are now confined space and trench rescue certified.

Started doing transfer to inquire its profitability.

We have add a Tracked UTV to our inventory. Used 3 times to help the County reach their repeater.

There is still much work to be completed. The department has a long ways to go. We appreciate the help and support we have received from the council and administration.

Village of Angel Fire Fire Department

Command will be in charge of the overall operation and safety of an incident. Command may or may not be on scene depending on the incident.

Command structure may utilize personnel from different areas such as police, depending on the type of incident.

A large scale incident may require the command staff to break into five other sections. These sections will include; Finance, logistics, Operations, Planning, Safety and Public Information. A large incident is not described in the following chart, but can be referenced in the Emergency Operations Plan.

Fire/Rescue Operations:

Fire Operations is divided into two groups; Structure and wildland. Structure focuses on structure fire suppression and interior attack. Wildland focuses on vegetative fires. These may include a large geographic area with multiple structures. Wildland will not do any interior attack unless geared for it and it does not consume extraordinary amount of resources for the value of the structure.

Structure/Rescue Group:

Structure is broken into three companies; Engine, Truck, and Rescue.

The engine company is responsible for interior operations such as, Extinguishing the fire and doing initial rescue of the public. Rescue of a person takes priority over all.

The truck company is responsible for exterior operations. This includes ventilation, exterior rescue of the public, setting up ladders, controlling utilities as well as building salvage.

The rescue company is responsible for rescue of public from fire, vehicle, trench, confined space, HazMat, etc. This is a large area to cover and we do not have all aspects of a rescue company filled or enough personnel to specialize in each of these areas. This is a priority to get the proper training.

WildLand Group:

Wildland fire fighting uses different tactics and equipment than structure fire fighting. The personal protective equipment is lighter and not as durable. The equipment is much smaller and more agile. This group was broken into smaller elements equivalent to companies in the structure group; the Engine Bosses, Tender (tanker) Operators and Crew Bosses.

Engine Bosses are responsible for their crew and the engine (fire truck). The Engine maybe as large as a structure engine used to protect a structure. These apparatus will be dedicated to structures, supply a hose line to crews or out on their own doing suppression activity.

Tender operators may be responsible for up to one additional personnel. Typically these apparatus supply water, but our FD uses a tactical tender (a tender with a fire water pump) which can be used as an engine for suppression activities.

Crew Bosses are in charge of hand crews of up to 20 or so personnel. They do all the "grunt" work from digging line to picking up trash after an incident.

Training

Training personnel is extremely important, especially with volunteers who have a very limited amount of time. The personnel responsible will have to provide training for all the other branches and insure that requirements are met for ISO and EMS standards. A designated supervisor is required to insure training is kept up. This will help promote morale as well as increase the departments capability.

EMS (Emergency Medical Service) Operations

Command

Command is established to provide the EMS providers equipment and personnel for an incident. This may include initiating a medical helicopter transport, controlling a hazard, etc.

Lead EMT (Emergency Medical Technician) has overall control of patient care and is responsible for directing their subordinates in this care. Any additional resources will be requested through command.

MCI (mass Casualty Incident) or Triage officer has the responsibility to determine the amount of patient care required for each patient when our EMS system is overwhelmed

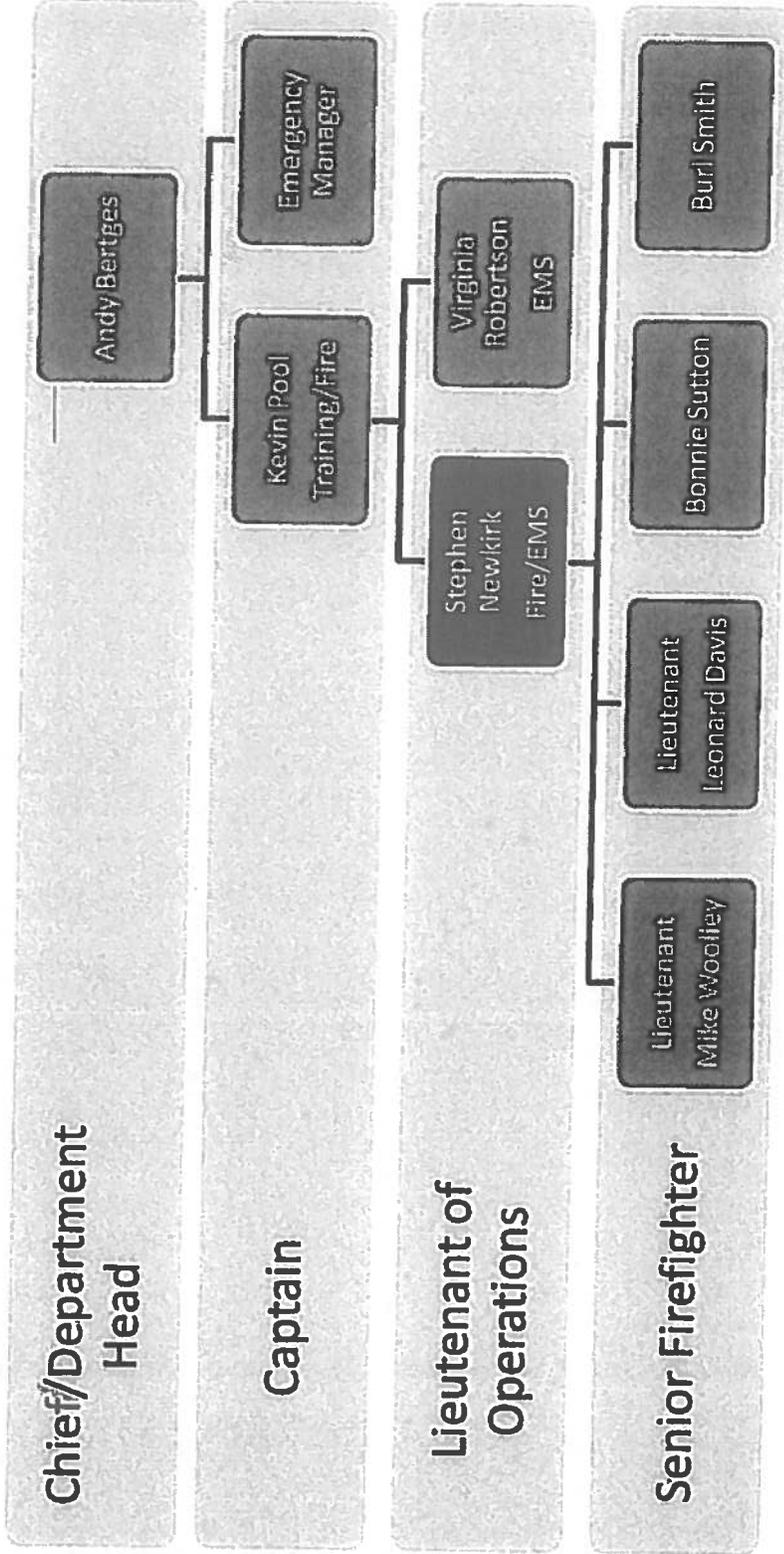

QA/QI (Quality Assurance/Quality Insurance) is a post incident duty where reports and incidents are reviewed to assure and insure the quality of care was the best possible. This responsibility includes review of reports as well as the overall incident. Report review include information provided, format, whether the proper procedure was conducted, etc. This position is the least glamorous, but a very important position.

Fire Inspection/Prevention

These personnel are in charge of putting the Fire Department out of Business. The position requires inspections of occupancies to mitigate and prevent harm due to fire. This is done through the inspections and preplanning hazards of buildings.
